

March 17, 2026

To Whom It May Concern,

It is our privilege to formally recognize the United Mission for Relief and Development (UMR) for its outstanding contributions to humanitarian relief and sustainable community development. Through our partnership and professional engagement with UMR, we have observed an organization that consistently upholds the highest standards of integrity and commitment to serving vulnerable populations. UMR has established itself as a credible and capable humanitarian actor, demonstrating strong leadership, and effective program delivery.

United Mission for Relief and Development has demonstrated a strong ability to design and implement programs; their work reflects responsible measurement of outcomes that improve the lives of the populations they serve. Through our collaboration, UMR has shown exceptional organizational capacity, including strong program management, transparent communication, and adherence to high ethical standards.

In addition, UMR exhibits collaborative approach to partnerships. Their leadership and programming teams prioritize coordination, mutual respect, and long-term sustainability when working with partner organizations. This approach has helped ensure the successful implementation of joint initiatives and has strengthened the overall impact of our collective efforts.

Based on our experience, we confidently recommend the United Mission for Relief and Development (UMR) as a reliable and capable humanitarian organization. We believe that institutions, and partners working with UMR will benefit from their professionalism, integrity, and dedication to advancing community development and humanitarian relief efforts.

Should you require any additional information regarding our partnership or our experience working with UMR, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Nida Saleem
Executive Director
IMANA

IMANA

9681 Main St., Ste B
Fairfax, VA 22031

PHONE

T: 630-932-0000
F: 630-932-0005

WEB

www.imana.org
info@imana.org